From Your Assistant Chapter Director...

Happy Valentines Day!!

It was great to see so many people at our January 25th general meeting. Thank You for your support.

The ride meeting went longer than expected. We may change to having two meetings and planning six months at a time. It's going to be another busy and fun summer!!!

Over Memorial Day we will be riding to visit Woody's Pig Roast in Waitsville, WA. We may visit GWRRA Chapter L's Desert Spring Fling in the Tri-Cities. We'll also ride some of the fun roads in the region. We will be staying overnight in Biggs, OR. It was discussed that we would leave Saturday and come back Sunday. Some of us will be staying until Monday. If you would like be a part of this ride and reserve a room, please contact me, Bobbi Dunn at bobbidunn@comcast.net. The ride will be lead by Ed Douglas.

The Teddy Bear Tour is coming up fast. Schwans has agreed to again provide the ice cream for the after event Ice Cream Social.

Don't forget, when you're out shopping, to ask the store manager if they would be willing to donate something to our event. Let me know if you need the "letter to businesses" and/or Teddy Bear Tour Fliers.

Contact your local fire station, police, paramedics or medical facility. Find out if they would like some Teddy Bears and how many. Give the Contact name, address, phone number and numbers of bears to me, so we can make sure the bears are distributed correctly!

From Your Ride Guide....

February already? It's been a month, give or take, since we all made those NEW YEARS RESOLUTIONS. And I know you've all stuck to your guns and are still doing them faithfully??? Well, maybe not all of them, some of them? OK different subject.

Unfortunately, I'm doing this before we have our annual ride calendar meeting, but by the looks of our home calendar, it will be a short meeting. Between Memorial Day and Labor Day, which as we all know is "Washington's good riding season", there isn't a whole lot of weekend space left. We do have to schedule a few Honey Do days in there too.

There usually isn't anyway out of the Honey Do List unless, it's your honeys idea to do something else. Painting, weed pulling, lawn mowing, pruning, edging, all that necessary home ownership stuff. If you were to stop on a nice day, the iced tea is usually always available along with other important refreshments, and if it was mentioned how nice it was and I sniveled just at the right time, we might say to heck with it and go enjoy the rest of the day with you.

I make jest of the ride schedules and the honey do list but try and remember that it is almost impossible to do all the rides. Not only the time but the money commitment. As GWTA we (Chp.P) and all the other chapters have our favorite things to do plus most of the other GWTA chapters have a ride that they host for the rest of us to attend. This is just a small part of the motorcycling community; there are GWRRA functions, AMA functions HOG functions and the list continues, throughout the world of motorcycling.

Then besides the rides, and the honey do's, most of us have families so, there's always the birthdays, anniversaries, get together, and what ever else comes up. I try to maintain that families come first, but I can always go to these family functions and come home from them on two wheels.

Our motorcycle is our toy, our hobby; it doesn't always have to be ridden on those nice warm days. It can stay home, and we can always take the car to wherever we need to go. I'll attempt to smile every so often to let you know I'm enjoying myself whatever we might be doing in the CAR

Be Wise be Careful
Mike

A bit of this and that,

First I would like to wish A happy March anniversary to: Dale & Chom Smith {3-20} & Don & Joan Willis{3-22}.

As always if I have missed anyone please let me Know at GL1200JH@ aol.com.

I Know it is A little Bit Passed Christmas but I got This the other day and thought I would pass it on :

'Twas the night before Christmas, And not until Spring,
Would an engine be running, not even a Wing
The bikes are all sleeping, They're covered and warm
Batteries are tended, nylon covers their form

My Bro's were all nestled snug in their beds,
While visions of new chrome danced in their heads
And I in my doo-rag, bike jacket and boots,
Out shoveling snow, and dreaming of scoots

Then from the horizon there came such a clatter,
My shovel I dropped, what could be the matter?
Away up the hill, I slogged through the snow,
Looked up at the sky; where'd all that noise go?

A throb from the heavens like straight pipes so hearty,
Gave summer's good thoughts, a loud bikers' party

Sunshine Corner Cont'd.....

When, what to my wondering eyes should appear,
But a Hog Ultra Classic, Red trailer in rear

With a little old rider, so lively and quick,
I knew in a moment it must be St Nick More rapid than Crotchies his Ultra came on,
As he whistled, and shouted, and sang out
this song;

"Now, Harley! Now, Big Dog! On Now Vulcan!
Now Injun! On Suzu, you screamer!
To the top of the porch! To the top of the wall!

Now RIDE away! RIDE away! RIDE away all!"

As small bikes that from the semis do fly,
When they meet with the air blast, aimed to the sky
So up to the house-top that Ultra it flew,
With a trailer of goodies, and ole' St Nick too

And then, in a twinkling, I heard on the roof,
The rumble and thunder of pipes that gave proof
I ran to the house, boots thumping around,
And in came St Nick all bearded and round

Dressed all in black leather, from do-rag to boot,
His chaps were all tarnished with road grime
and soot
A T-bag of goodies he'd flung on his back,
And he looked like a peddler just opening his pack

His shades -- how they twinkled! His do-rag how scary!
With chains intertwined, through skulls that were cherry!
His droll little mouth had done many a row,
So the beard of his chin was as white as the snow

The stump of a pipe he held tight in his teeth,
The smoke had a strange smell; it gave him relief!

He had a broad face and a large fat beer
belly,
That shook, when he laughed like a bowlful
of jelly

He was tattooed and plump, a right jolly old rider,
So I offered a cold Bud, thought what could be righter?
A wink of his eye as he downed that cold
beer,
Gave me to know I had nothing to fear

He spoke not a word, but went straight to my ride,
And fixed it with Chrome, Horsepower and Pride!
And giving the peace sign with bikers' good cheer,
Took off for his Ultra rumbling anear

He sprang on the saddle, his gloves on the bars,
A wheeley he threw, then off to the stars!
I heard him exclaim, as my chest swelled with pride
Merry Christmas to all, and to all a good
ride!

Something else to think about.

The next time you hear a politician use the word "billion" casually, think about whether you want that politician spending your money.

A billion is a difficult number to comprehend, but one advertising agency did a good job of putting that figure into perspective in one of its releases:

A billion seconds ago, it was 1959.
A billion minutes ago, Jesus was alive.
A billion dollars ago was only 8 hour &
20 minutes, at the rate Washington spends it.

Till next time . Ride safe, Jo

Life is precious. Handle with care.

Jack took a long look at his speedometer before slowing down: 73 in a 55 zone. Fourth time in as many months. How could a guy get caught so often? When his car had slowed to 10 miles an hour, Jack pulled over, but only partially. Let the cop worry about the potential traffic hazard. Maybe some other car will tweak his backside with a mirror. The cop was stepping out of his car, the big pad in ! hand. Bob? Bob from Church? Jack sunk farther into his trench coat. This was worse than the coming ticket.

A cop catching a guy from his own church. A guy who happened to be a little eager to get home after a long day at the office. A guy he was about to play golf with tomorrow. Jumping out of the car, he approached a man he saw every Sunday, a man he'd ever seen in uniform.

"Hi, Bob. Fancy meeting you like this."

"Hello, Jack." No smile.

"Guess you caught me red-handed in a rush to see my wife and kids."

"Yeah, I guess." Bob seemed uncertain. Good.

"I've seen some long days at the office lately. I'm afraid I bent the rules a bit , just this once." Jack toed at a pebble on the pavement "Diane said something about roast beef and potatoes tonight. Know what I mean"

"I know what you mean. I also know that you have a reputation in our precinct." Ouch. This was not going in the right direction. Time to change tactics.

"What did you clock me at,"

"Seventy. Would you sit back in your car please?"

"Now wait a minute here, Bob. I checked as soon as I saw you. I was barely nudging 65." The lie seemed to come easier with every ticket.

"Please, Jack, in the car."

Flustered, Jack hunched himself through the still-open door. Slamming it shut, he stared at the dashboard. He was in no rush to open the window. The minutes ticked by. Bob scribbled away on the pad. Why hadn't he asked for a driver's license? Whatever the reason, it would be a month of Sundays before Jack ever sat near this cop again. A tap on the door jerked his head to the left. There was Bob, a folded paper in hand Jack rolled down the window a mere two inches, just enough room for Bob to pass him the slip.

"Thanks." Jack could not quite keep the sneer out of his voice.

Bob returned to his police car without a word. Jack watched his retreat in the mirror. Jack unfolded the sheet of paper.

How much was this one going to cost? Wait a minute. What was this? Some kind of joke? Certainly not a ticket. Jack began to read:

"Dear Jack,

Once upon a time I had a daughter. She was six when killed by a car. You guessed it a speeding driver. A fine and three months in jail, and the man was free. Free to hug his daughters ,All three of them. I only had one, and I'm going to have to wait until Heaven before I can ever hug her again. A thousand times I've tried to forgive that man. A thousand times I thought I had. Maybe I did, but I need to do it again.

Even now. Pray for me. And be careful, Jack, my son is all I have left."

"Bob"

Jack turned around in time to see Bob's car pull away and head down the road. Jack watched until it disappeared. A full 15 minutes later, he too, pulled away and drove slowly home, praying for forgiveness and hugging a surprised wife and kids when he arrived.

NEW MEMBER ARTICLE

Hi, I'm Ed Douglas and as I am a relatively new member to Chapter "P" this is a brief introduction for those of you curious for more information.

I was born and raised in Bremerton, I was in the Army and spent a little over two years stationed in Hawaii as a Fixed Cryptographic Equipment Repairman working in a comm. center. I've spent six months on the east coast, (New Jersey), spent some time in California and visited many other places, however I've never found anyplace that I would rather live than right here in the Northwest, we have some of the most beautiful riding country in the world.

After I got out of the military, I went to work at Keyport Naval Station and retired from there in 1995 after 23 years working in electronics. During the last few years before I retired I worked evenings at Pfeiffers Goldwing Accessory Shop and when it was bought by Taber's Precision Cycles in 1996 I went to work for Taber's full time. What could be better I spend just about all of my time around Goldwings either riding them or working on them.

My last two 1500 Goldwings I bought after an insurance company had written them off and I rebuilt them, my current wing a 2000 1500SE I painted myself because it was something that I'd never done before and always wanted to do.

Several years ago I developed an interest in personal computers and started building my own, I've built many PC's since then and working on them and with them has become a bit of an addiction.

I have two children Mike and Cindy and Cindy has blessed me with four grandchildren, the oldest being thirteen. OK, I'm starting to feel old now, on to other things.

I got my first M/C when I was 15, a Yamaha 80 and I've been hooked on M/C's ever since then. I got my first Goldwing in 1988, a new 1987 Aspencade and I've had nothing but Goldwings ever since, in my opinion they are the finest engineered, most trouble free M/C ever built and Oh My, there are so many toys and shiny's available for them.

I've been a member of GWRRA since 1988 although I haven't been an active member for many years now. I've known several members of GWTA "P" for quite awhile but never joined or attended events. I went on a ride with "P" last August to Leavenworth and I've been at most of the "P" rides and events since then. It's been great to find a group of people that have so much fun riding and getting together, so much so that I joined GWTA and I'm now a member of The Purple People, Chapter "P". I'm looking forward to a full year of fun and riding with all of you.
